“Receive the Holy Spirit.”

Today we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit came upon Jesus’ disciples with a mighty wind and tongues of fire (Acts 2: 1-4). We remember how the Spirit poured faith, courage, the generous love into the hearts of timid men and women and made them bold witnesses who built the Church. And we rejoice that the same Spirit who transformed those first disciples lives in us!

You received the Holy Spirit at your Baptism, and you were sealed with the Spirit at Confirmation. But receiving the Spirit in the sacraments is only the beginning. It’s as if you received a gift of a brand new car. The gift itself is amazing, but what good is it if you leave the car sitting in the parking lot? You’re not experiencing all that it can do. You need to get inside, learn how everything works, and take it for a drive.

Of course, the Holy Spirit is a divine Person, not an object. But God doesn’t want you to ignore him as if you were leaving the shiny new car in the parking lot!! Our Father wants you to experience the Spirit in all his fullness. The Spirit has so much he wants to teach you, so many gifts of wisdom and courage to impart, and so much love, peace, and joy to pour into your heart. That’s why, in today’s Gospel, Jesus urges his disciples, and us, to “receive the Holy Spirit” (John 20:22).

Imagine Jesus telling you right now, Receive my Spirit! Receive more of my gifts and power and understanding. I want to give you expectant faith and assure you of my love. I want to fill you with power so that you can hear my voice, walk in my ways, and love one another. Receive my Spirit, and bring the good news of my mercy to everyone!

Pope Francis gives 3 reasons to pray the rosary.

- ✠ First, he said that the Rosary is a "compendium of the entire history of our salvation."
- ✠ Then, the Pope noted, the "Holy Rosary is a powerful weapon against evil."
- ✠ Finally, the Pope said, it is "an effective means of obtaining true peace in our hearts."

All are welcome to stay and pray the Rosary after morning Mass and after the 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday. Weekend Masses, the Rosary will be recited 30 minutes before Mass.

The Altar Flowers are a great way to honor and remember loved ones.

"Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of Jesus in the Eucharist" will be playing in 2 local theaters June 4th & 5th

The Catholic Church teaches that the Eucharist is the most profound means by which God shares Himself with humanity.

In Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist takes on a global journey to rediscover and revive the transformative power of the Eucharist and makes it unmistakably clear that the Eucharist is not merely a symbol but is indeed Jesus Christ Himself!

After watching, a viewer cannot walk away without believing in the true presence."

St. Teresa of Calcutta

A message from Bishop Louis F Kihneman, III

“A place for hope and healing.”

On behalf of Catholic Charities of South Mississippi, I am pleased to announce the opening of Mercy Cross Center in Biloxi to serve those in our community who are in great need. Mercy Cross Center is a day shelter designed to provide basic needs support such as showers, laundry, mail services, clothing, and respite while also being a centralized service center, providing space for all social services providers and other helping entities to serve this most vulnerable population.

The Mercy Cross Center is located on the former campus of Mercy Cross High School [390 Crusaders Drive, Biloxi, MS] that was destroyed in Hurricane Katrina in 2005. The dedication and opening of this facility will occur on May 28, 2024 to provide access to ministries and services to help those without homes to transition to a more stable living situation.

The Mercy Cross Center will be the first multi-agency center in our area aimed at Providing Comprehensive services to our community members who need them. The Center strives to eliminate barriers for both those in need in our community partners together to minister to the specific needs of this community.

Our goal is to provide a drug and alcohol-free facility that is a safe place for the neediest of our neighbors to move towards stability and find their place in society. Volunteers will be a large part of the success of this facility. Volunteers are encouraged to get involved in this most worthwhile ministry. There is a need for doctors and nurses. We are also looking for people who are willing to mentor or to walk with folks to get to know them and let them know they are loved.

Essential services to be available with the help of partners include: meals, temporary housing, healthcare needs, medicine, mental health crisis, job training, application for employment/resume composing, legal assistance, substance abuse support and other services. The goal is not only meeting immediate needs, but to also work towards long-term solutions empowering individuals to rebuild their lives and reintegrate into society.

As we embark on this exciting journey, we will need much help from the community. In addition to volunteers, we also need help from the community. In addition to volunteers, we also need donations of gently used, clean clothing, hygiene items, laundry items, sleeping bags, etc., and especially your prayers. For more information and ways to get involved, please contact Pam Leach at pleach@biloxidiocese.org.

We are just three weeks away from the Eucharistic Pilgrimage along the Gulf Coast! Check the bulletin next weekend, May 25th, for information about a procession from St. Rose de Lima to Our Lady of the Gulf on Saturday, June 1st in preparation for the events of June 10—14, 2024.

Saint

Of the Week

St. Bernadine of Siena

Church Father, Patron of sufferers of lung disease and the city Aquila
Feast Day: May 20

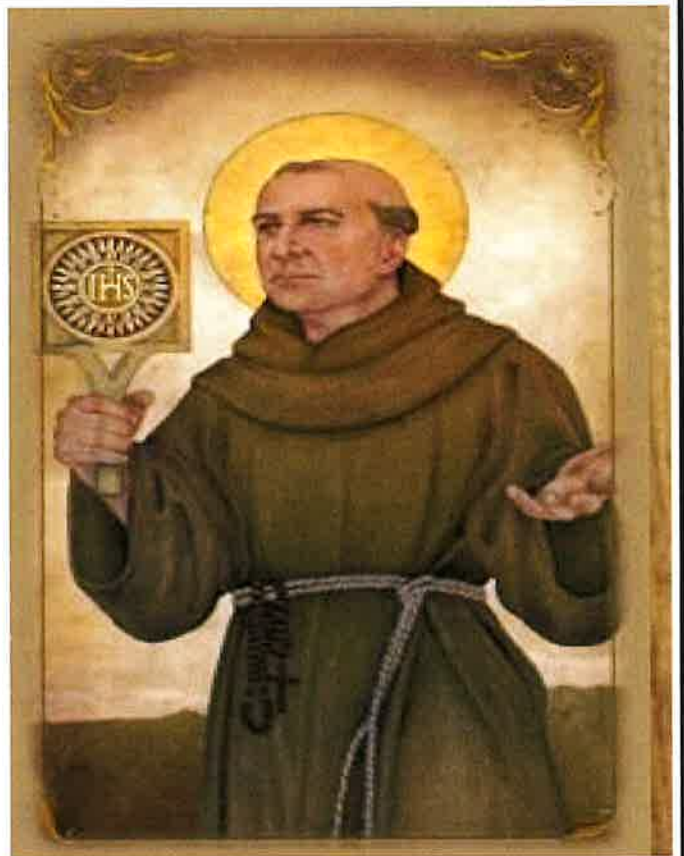

Bernadine of Siena was born in 1380. He lost his parents early. His mother died when he was three and his father when he was six years old. He was brought up by his wealthy uncle who lived in Siena. Bernadine was an excellent student and completed his law degree at the University of Siena. He was also active in the Confraternity of Our Lady that focused on spiritual improvement and served the sick during the plague. His actions could have ended tragically since Bernadine contracted the disease from the poor he was helping. In 1402 he joined the Franciscans in Siena. At the Nativity of Holy Virgin Mary celebration he gave away his property to the poor and took the habit of Friars Minor. A year later he professed his monastic vows and was ordained in 1404.

Soon he gained fame as a passionate speaker and was recognized as Italy's leading preacher. His sermons were attended by large crowds.

Zeal and modesty

In his preaching activity, Bernadine paid particular attention to the name of Jesus, which he venerated with a special passion. He also wanted his order to return to the charisma of St. Francis. When he encountered resistance from the other friars, he began creating a new monastery with a very strict rule. These monks were called Observants. Soon the congregation became larger than the order in which it was rooted. Bernadine also worked as a scholar and writer, leaving many excellent writings behind.

When he died in 1444, the number of faithful wishing to attend the funeral was so large that his body had to be transferred to the cathedral in Aquila. Many miraculous healings took place at his grave. Bernadine was counted among the saints in 1450.

Prayer to the Holy Name
by St. Bernadine of Siena

Jesus,

Name full of glory, grace, love and strength!
You are the refuge of those who repent,
our banner of warfare in this life,
the medicine of souls,
the comfort of those who mourn,
the delight of those who believe,
the light of those who preach the true faith,
the wages of those who toil,
the healing of the sick.

To You our devotion aspires;
by You our prayers are received;
we delight in contemplating You.
O Name of Jesus,
You are the glory of all the saints for eternity.
Amen.
