“Know, and fix in your heart, that the Lord is God.”

What a beautiful reading for today's feast of the Holy Trinity! Moses' words to the Israelite tell us that there is only one God: "the Lord" (Deuteronomy 4:39). And he is a wonderful God! He is generous and kind, not like the false gods that the pagans worshipped. He is so kind, in fact, that he rescued his people from slavery and led them into the Promised Land (Deuteronomy 4:34). No pagan could say anything like that about their "God!"

Now, with the coming of Christ, we have an even greater understanding of who this one true God truly is. And at the heart of that understanding is the proclamation that our God is a Trinity of Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

As Father, he treat us with great love and calls us into his family. He welcomes us into his throne room and promises to hear us when we call to him.

As Son, he takes on our own humanity and offers that humanity in sacrifice on a cross. And through that cross, he destroys the power of sin and showers us with mercy.

As Spirit, he pours his very life and love into us. He empowers us to live the life we've been called to—a life of love and mercy that mirrors the love of our heavenly Father.

This is our God! But we live in a world that tempts us to make false gods of riches and self-indulgence and to be indifferent to the needs of the poor. These "gods" aren't real; all they can promise are fleeting pleasures. By contrast, the one true God loves us unconditionally and wants to save us and care for us. So follow Moses' advice and "fix in your heart" the truth that you belong to God—he belongs to you (Deuteronomy 4:39)!

Pope Francis gives 3 reasons to pray the rosary.
 † First, he said that the Rosary is a “compendium of the entire history of our salvation.”
 † Then, the Pope noted, the “Holy Rosary is a powerful weapon against evil.”
 † Finally, the Pope said, it is “an effective means of obtaining true peace in our hearts.”
 All are welcome to stay and pray the Rosary after morning Mass and after the 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday. Weekend Masses, the Rosary will be recited 30 minutes before Mass.

Catholics Participating in National Eucharistic Pilgrimage and the National Eucharistic Congress Have Opportunities to Receive Plenary Indulgences.

“It is with gratitude to the Holy Father that we receive his Apostolic Blessing upon the participants in the National Eucharistic Congress, and for the opportunity for Catholics in our country to obtain a plenary indulgence by participating in the events of the Eucharistic Revival,” said Archbishop Timothy P. Brogilio, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. Fostering encounter, sparking personal conversion, and forming disciples will be opportunities for a personal revival in the faith and the fruits of the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage and National Eucharistic Congress to be held this summer.

Plenary Indulgence for National Eucharistic Pilgrimage

A decree issued by the Apostolic Penitentiary and approved by Pope Francis indicates that the plenary indulgence will be granted to the Christian faithful who participate in the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage at any point between May 17 and July 16, 2024. It will also be granted to the elderly, infirm, and all those who cannot leave their homes for a serious reason and who participate in spirit with the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, uniting their prayers, pains, or inconveniences with Christ and the pilgrimage. This indulgence is granted under the usual conditions of sacramental Confession, Eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father. The faithful may also apply this indulgence through suffrage for the souls of the faithful departed in Purgatory. In recognition of this extraordinary event, the Apostolic Penitentiary also requests that all priests who have been endowed with the appropriate faculties for hearing Confessions present themselves willingly and generously in administering the Sacrament of Penance to all who participate in the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage.

Papal Blessing with Plenary Indulgence for National Eucharistic Congress

The second decree issued by the Apostolic Penitentiary and approved by Pope Francis, says that Archbishop Brogilio or another prelate of episcopal rank assigned by him, following the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, may impart the Papal Blessing with a Plenary Indulgence to the Christian Faithful who participate in the National Eucharistic Congress, who are truly repentant, and who are motivated by charity, if the usual conditions for indulgences—sacramental Confession, Eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father—have been met. Faithful individuals who, due to reasonable circumstances and with pious intention, have participated in the sacred rites and received the Papal Blessing through media communications, may also obtain a Plenary Indulgence.

Saint

Of the Week

St. Mary Ann of Quito

Patroness of the Americas and the Sick

Feast Day: May 26

Born Mariana Paredes y Flores in 1618, Mary Ann was the daughter of a noble family in Quito, which was then part of Peru. When her parents died, Mary Ann moved in with her sister's family. Showing great piety at an early age, she received her first Communion at seven years old, which was unusual for the time. Three years later, the devout young girl took vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, and soon after, she became a member of a Franciscan lay group.

Counseled by Jesuits, Mary Ann spent most of her life in solitary prayer in her sister's house, leaving only to attend Mass. She did not, however, completely cut herself off from the world. Mary Ann taught Indian school children at the house and tended to the sick and poor who came to her door.

Tradition holds that Mary Ann had miraculous powers of prophecy and healing. She was also known for the austerities she practiced during her many hours of prayer. By some accounts, she ate only a few scraps of bread every few days and lived mostly on Communion wafers. At times, she slept only three hours a night and wore a crown made of thorns.

Offering Her Life

In 1645, Quito was struck with a series of natural disasters. Epidemics ran rampant while nearby volcanoes erupted and earthquakes shook the city. One day during Mass, Mary Ann offered her life to God to pay for the sins of the City's residents, hoping to end the disasters. The earthquakes did cease soon after, but the epidemics ran their course. Within a few weeks, Mary Ann died. It is said that almost immediately a white lily bloomed where some of her blood had spilled. Today, she is remembered as "the Lily of Quito."

St. Mariana de Jesús

The Lily of Quito

1618-1645

Feast Day: May 26

Patronage: Ecuador, The Americas, bodily ills, loss of parents, the sick and sickness, those rejected from religious orders

Saint Mariana was born to noble parents and the first person to be canonized from Ecuador.

She was a third order Franciscan, a mystic who practiced intense mortifications and survived primarily on the Eucharist at daily Mass.

She was known to be a healer by making the sign of the cross and sprinkling holy water on the sick.

She even restored a dead woman to life.

St. Mariana gave her life while caring for plague victims and is called the "Lily of Quito" because after her death a lily sprouted from her blood.

St. Mariana, Lily of Quito, pray for us.

COMMUNION AND MISSION

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity, which, as Pope Francis explains, “reminds us of the mystery of one God in three Persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Everything in Christian life revolves around the mystery of the Trinity and is fulfilled according to this infinite mystery. The Trinity is the communion of divine Persons who are one with the others, one for the others, one in the others. This communion is the life of God, the mystery of the love of the living God.

“Jesus revealed this mystery to us. He spoke to us of God as the Father; he spoke to us of the Spirit; and he spoke to us of himself as the Son of God. After he rose, he sent the disciples to evangelize to the peoples and to baptize them “in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” (Mt 28:19). This command is entrusted by Christ in all ages to the Church, which has inherited the missionary mandate from the Apostles. He also directs it to each one of us who, through the power of Baptism, are part of his community.

“Therefore, today’s celebration, while making us contemplate the amazing mystery from which we come and toward which we are going, renews for us the mission of living in communion with God and living in communion among ourselves according to the model of the divine communion. We are called to live not as one without the others, above or against the others, but one with the others, for the others and in the others. This means to accept and witness in harmony the beauty of the Gospel, experiencing love for one another and for all, sharing joy and suffering, learning to ask and grant forgiveness, appreciating various charisms under the guidance of pastors. In a word, we have been entrusted with the task of edifying ecclesial communities which increasingly become families, capable of reflecting the splendor of the Trinity and evangelizing not only with the words but with the power of the love of God that lives within us.”

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

OUR TRINITARIAN VOCATION AND MISSION

We have been created in the image of God (Gen 1:27), which for us Christians means that we have been created in the image of the Trinity and our vocation is to be in a relationship with God as three in one. And just as we learned how to be in relationships by imitating our parents and those around us, so we learn how to be in relationship with God by imitating the activity of each of the three persons of the Trinity: the Father, the loving creator who brings everything into existence and orders all into right relationships; Jesus, the crucified reconciler sent from God to show us how to live as God's children and re-establish the relationships broken and disfigured by sin; and the Holy Spirit, who transforms and sanctifies everything through God's presence and power now at work in our world and in our community.

IMITATING GOD THE FATHER, THE CREATOR AND ORDERER

God the Father's relationship with us begins with creation, in which everything is ordered into the right relationships that God wanted. But sin broke down those relationships, thus requiring reconciliation. So God immediately began the work of transforming the sinful relationships into a "new creation" that would be evil-free. To achieve this change, God called the covenant community of Israel to embody these right relationships and then sent Christ to restore the original harmony of creation. Now we are invited to cooperate with God to create in our lives the right relationships God envisioned from the beginning. In practical terms, this means that every day we must align ourselves with God and struggle to bring about right relationships within our self, among ourselves and others, and with God. We must change the domination and rule of evil and sin over our world into God's "new creation."

IMITATING JESUS THE SON, THE REVEALER AND RECONCILER

Jesus, God become human, reveals who God is and what God is doing to bring about God's new creation. Jesus' saving work—the forgiveness of sins or reconciliation—transforms our disordered relationships into rightly ordered ones. Jesus' whole life was dedicated to the service of God's hidden presence in our world. As a prophet, he called people's attention to God's presence in the ordinary events of their lives. As a priest, he invited people to celebrate this presence with inclusive meals that prefigure the end-time feast with God in heaven. As a king, he showed people how to reorder their lives according to the kingdom values of justice, love and peace. Through our baptism, we have been anointed to continue his work as prophet, priest and king (See Vatican II, Lumen Gentium, #31-41). The more we imitate Jesus and live by his values, the more we create the right relationships that God desires for us.

IMITATING THE HOLY SPIRIT, THE UNIFIER AND SANCTIFIER

What the Holy Spirit does within the Trinity as the divine power of life and the bond of love, is also done for us in salvation history. Through the Holy Spirit we experience God dwelling within us to empower us for life and to draw us together through the bonding power of love into a community of rightly-ordered relationships. But we must also realize that our lives are not just for ourselves. As with the Trinity, everything we think and do is directed towards right relationships and our life together with God. Today, whenever and wherever we experience new life in Christ and the bond of Christian community, we know the Holy Spirit is active in us, in our local community, in the universal Church and in our world. Quietly but effectively, in ways we often don't discern, with our cooperation God is transforming our world through the power of the Holy Spirit into God's community of justice, love and peace.
