“Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?”

It wasn't an unreasonable question for the disciples to ask. They had been with Jesus and seen him perform healings, teach crowds of people, even dispute with religious leaders. But they had never seen anything like this! Sure, as fishermen they knew how to survive violent squalls on the Sea of Galilee. But never had anyone done it by calming the wind and the waves with a command!

The disciples' question is a good one for you to ask as well. Scriptural answers can help you not only recognize but also proclaim the power of goodness of the Lord.

Who is this? He is the Word of God, who was at the Father's side from the beginning, the One through whom all things came to be (John 1:2-3). He was an active participant when the Father created everything. He is just as involved in your life.

Who is this? He is the same God as the One who "shut within doors of the sea" and "set limits for it" (Job 38: 8, 10). Since he created all things, he has authority over those created things. Nothing is beyond his control, not even the greatest challenge you may be facing today.

Who is this? He is the One who, today's responsorial psalm tells us, "hushed the storm to a gentle breeze" (107:29). He can bring peace to the turmoil in nature, and he can do the same for the turmoil in your own heart.

Who is this? He is the One whose word goes forth and accomplishes his purposes and plans in this world (Isaiah 55:11). He spoke, and all things came into being. His word has the same power in your life, the power to bring the healing, forgiveness, and peace that he proclaims.

Who is this? This is Jesus, eternal Son of the Father, who creates and sustains all things (Colossians 1:16-17). He holds all of creation together. And he holds you and your loved ones as well.

Letter from Fr. Jacob-Matthew Smith, OFM

This weekend marks my last weekend as the Pastor of St. Clare Catholic Church. It is with sadness that I am leaving such a vibrant parish, but I leave having seen a parish grow by leaps and bounds, not only in the number of parishioners we now have, but in the progress we have made in building and adding to the Church and grounds. And it's all because of you...you who believed in me, believed in St. Clare as an integral part of the community, and not one to live in the shadow, and believed in what Christ has been saying to us all along.

I want to thank all of you for your support over the past 6 ½ years, especially in light of our outreach programs and in-house programs that have been implemented. Most assuredly I want to thank those who orchestrated such a massive going away dinner for me, and “calling me out” in front of all those who were present at the Seafood Festival on that final day. It was truly a humbling experience, since I, as a Franciscan, have never sought places of honor at any function, except on the altar celebrating the Mass. Whatever we have accomplished at St. Clare has been due to your efforts. I may have provided the ideas, but those ideas came to fruition because of you and your hard work...our sign, our gazebo, our flag pole and military statues, our time capsule, the addition to the Church, the statues in the hallway and paintings of St. Clare that adorn the hallway and inside the Church, the Adoration Chapel, along with all the renovations that had to be made because of the storm.

Which is what our readings are about this weekend, the storms in our lives. It is never easy to leave a place where you've been welcomed and loved, but like the Apostles, I am called elsewhere, and I owe our Bishop a debt of gratitude for allowing me to be your Pastor, and for the opportunity to serve with Fr. Henry at Our Lady of Fatima, before returning to my roots at the Franciscan Monastery in Washington, D.C. But I also believe the one taking over St. Clare is as actively involved in the Church and community and deserves the same chance you gave to me coming in as your new Pastor. He is very active at Our Lady of Fatima; all he needs is for you to take him by the hand and show him what we are all about at St. Clare and work with him to continue our traditions and involvement.

I love you all, and will keep you in my prayers, and I promise that when I get vacation time from the Monastery I will come to visit. I have worked to plant seeds here at St. Clare, calling each of you to be more Christ-like in your dealings with one another and with those of the surrounding community. I will pray that Our Lord will nurture those seeds and that each of you will produce fruit that will last forever.

Each moment that you spend with Jesus will deepen your union with Him and make your soul everlastingly more glorious and beautiful in heaven, and will help bring about an everlasting peace on earth."
 - Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Religious Freedom Week 2024: Called to the Fullness of Dignity

Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all. Beginning June 22, the feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, the USCCB invites Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom.

Pray—Reflect—Act

June 22: Respect for Sacred Spaces

Pray that all people of faith would be free to gather in houses of worship without fear.

June 23: Blasphemy and Apostasy Laws

Pray for all people of faith who live in fear of persecution under unjust blasphemy laws.

June 24: Freedom to Speak the Truth

Pray that the Holy Spirit would give us the courage to bear witness to the truth of the gospel, even in the face of social and legal pressure.

June 25: Service to Immigrants

Pray that the Lord would protect all migrants and refugees, and that all those who work with people on the move would be free to serve.

June 26: India

Pray for our Christian brothers and sisters in India, who face harassment and violent attacks.

June 27: Faith at Work

Pray that business leaders would be free to promote a culture of life in their workplaces.

June 28: Civility

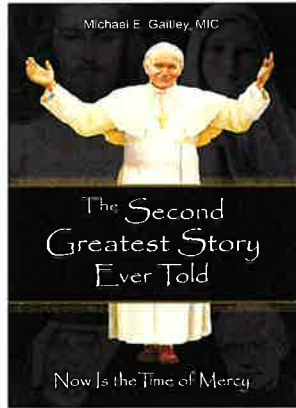

Pray that God would give us the grace to remember the dignity of all and invite others to do the same.

June 29: Catholic Healthcare

Pray that governments will respect the consciences of all individuals and institutions that care for the sick and vulnerable.

Registration is open through July 1. Sign up sheets are available on the round table outside of the Parish Center. Cost for the 10 week session is $20.00, which will be held on Mondays 10:15 am or 6:30 pm. The first session will be held on Monday, July 8.

In this vastly popular talk, Fr. Gaitley describes the "second greatest story ever told" - a story that encompasses Divine Mercy, the life of St. Pope John Paul II, and the crucial role that Marian Consecration can play in your life. Fr. Michael Gaitley is a priest in the Congregation of Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception and the director of formation for the Marian Missionaries of Divine Mercy.

Terry Calhoun 228/671-8063 or Susan Marino Kane 504/401-4266 are the points of contact.

As we get further into our first month of this hurricane season, we continue to call upon our Lord, through the intercession of Our Lady, Star of the Sea, to watch over us and protect us from the storms that may threaten us, and turn our fears of your power into praise of your goodness.

Join Fr. Michael Marascalco for a Special Divine Mercy Pilgrimage to Poland September 9-17, 2024

Saint

Of the Week

St. Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer y Albas

Founder of Opus Dei

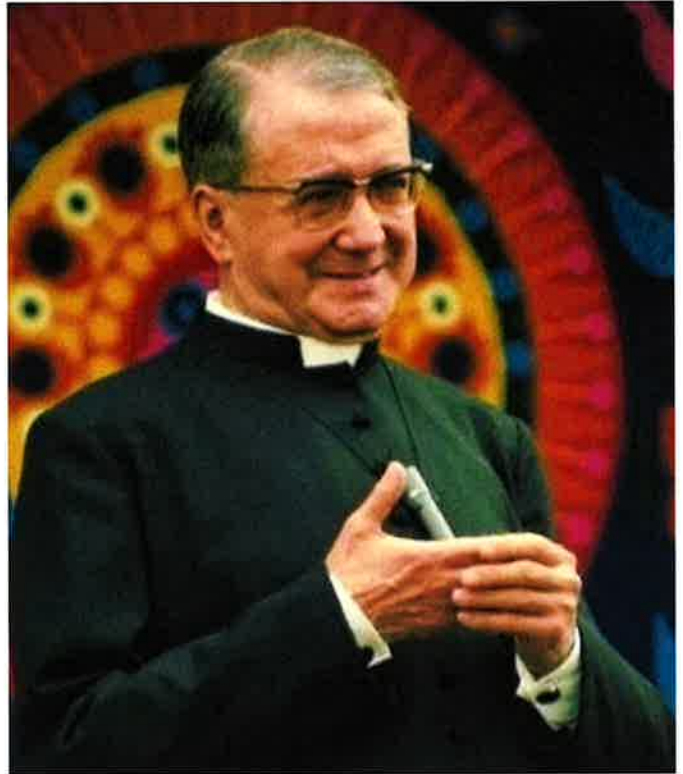

Feast Day: June 26

He was born on January 9, 1902 in Barbastro, in the Pyrenees. As a teenager he already felt a calling to the priesthood. Josemaría went to a seminary in 1918 and specialized in canon law. He was ordained on March 28, 1925. He worked as a priest in the country side and in 1927 moved to Madrid to continue his canon law studies. He was also involved in charity work in the poorest districts of the city. These activities led him to create, in 1928, the first structures of Opus Dei, an association of laypersons who are involved in activities expressing love of neighbor. The community developed, and a female branch was created in 1930, followed by a priest's branch in 1943.

The period of civil war that broke out in 1936 was not easy for Opus Dei and its founder. This innovative trend in Christian life was disliked by both republicans and the supporters of the extremely rightist dictatorship of Franco.

International character of Opus Dei

Fr. Josemaría moved to France and only returned to Spain in 1940. His activities were criticized and he faced suspicion and accusations. Opus Dei started to gain international recognition. In order to take better care of its development, Fr. Escrivá moved to Rome in 1946. There, at the Pontifical Lateran University, he obtained a doctoral degree in canon law. He served with his legal knowledge at different institutions in the Holy See. In 1950 he obtained papal approval for Opus Dei, which had become a very popular religious movement by that time.

Fr. Josemaría died on June 26, 1975 in Rome. He was canonized on October 6, 2002.

Prayer to Saint Josemaría Escrivá

Saint Josemaría Escrivá, you are honored as the patron of those who suffer from Diabetes.

God chose you to live on this earth as an example for all mankind.

Strengthen my faith and put me on the path to recovery.

I ask you to intervene and grant that I receive the favor for which I now ask through

Christ Our Lord. Amen
