“To whom shall we go?”

This was a decisive moment for Jesus’ disciples. They had seen him perform miracles, bring people to conversion, and contend with suspicious Jewish leaders. It seemed as if he could do nothing wrong!

But now they had to make a hard decision: Would they keep following Jesus when he said something they didn’t understand? How about when they didn’t like what they heard? He had just told them that he had come down from heaven and that, like God, he had the authority to grant eternal life. Then he said that anyone who wanted to follow him had to eat his body and drink his blood. It was all too much, and most of them “no longer accompanied him” (John 6:66).

But Peter, speaking for himself and the rest of the Twelve, cut through the confusion with one simple question: “Master, to whom shall we go?” (John 6:68). There was no one like Jesus. He truly was “the Holy One of God” (6:69). Peter couldn’t let his lack of understanding derail him.

He trusted that if he stayed close to Jesus, asked questions, listened carefully, and kept an open heart, he would one day get the answers he sought. Even if it took years, he would still stick with the One whose love and grace had changed his heart so dramatically.

Do some of Jesus’ words confuse you or scandalize you? Don’t let them cast a shadow over everything else you have heard. Certainly don’t let them cause you to doubt his love for you or for others! Instead, draw closer to him. Recall how patient he has been with you, and resolve to be just as patient in waiting for the answers you seek. And remember: you have the gift of faith for just this very purpose. Allow that supernatural grace to help you trust in the Lord even when you don’t understand.

Jesus truly is the Holy One of God. There’s nowhere else you can go to receive all that he has for you.

Effective Wednesday, September 4, 2024

St. Vincent de Paul days of operation will be just one day of the week!!

They will meet with and assist neighbors on Wednesdays from 10:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. This was a difficult decision for the St. Clare SVDP Society to make. However, the volume of need has nearly tripled in the past two months, while donations have not. Due to the extreme heat, the need for assistance with electricity bills continue increase.

The food pantry is in need of all types of non-perishable food items to include canned corn, peas, chili, fruit, canned meat, saltine crackers, instant potatoes, jelly, pancake mix and other items. Your generosity in these tough times are appreciated!!

There is always a need for volunteers to assist in the interviewing process of helping neighbors. Please contact Jim Barrett at 228-342-0552 via text or call.

Of the Week

St. Augustine

Patron of ArmPrinters, Theologians and Brewers

Feast Day: August 28

Augustine was born in 354 to a pagan father, Patricius, and an ardent Christian mother, Monica. When he was 16, Augustine went to Carthage to study law, but by 375, he was running schools of rhetoric and grammar. Although he believed in God, his study of such philosophers as Plato kept him from becoming a Christian. Augustine fell in love with a woman, but never married her even after having a son.

In 383, Augustine went to Rome to teach rhetoric, and soon after, he moved to Milan. His mother followed him there, desperately hoping her son would change his lifestyle and turn to God. In 385, after 15 years together, Augustine ended his relationship with his mistress. By the, Bishop Ambrose of Milan had helped Augustine to find and love the Lord.

His Christian Conversion

In the spring of 387, Augustine converted to Christianity and was baptized. After Augustine's mother, the beloved St. Monica, died months later, he returned to North Africa, where he was ordained a priest in 391. In 395, Augustine became coadjutor to the Bishop of Hippo, whom he succeeded a year later.

Meanwhile, Augustine wrote voluminous theological works, In his writings, Augustine engaged vigorously in religious controversy. He is probably best known today for his autobiographical Confessions, published in 399. In them, he outlined the events of his life, reflecting on them as stages in his spiritual development, and developed his thoughts about good and evil, the will of the individual and the Grace of God.

After nearly 40 years of ministry, Augustine died August 28, 430.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to intercede on our behalf to your Son, Jesus, to protect all who are in danger of hurricanes and other destructive weather. May His calming powers keep us safe and alert through this Hurricane season. Let us pray to the Lord.
