“What is this?”

Interesting question! The Israelites had complained that they longed for bread. And God promised to give them their fill of bread. So why were they puzzled by what they saw that morning in the desert? Because what God provided for them didn't look like any bread they had ever seen. In fact, the name of this mystifying substance, manna, is a clever play on the Hebrew phrase man hu, which means “What is this?”

The crowds in today's Gospel had a very similar response. They wanted Jesus to feed them again, as he had done miraculously the day before (John 6:10-13). But instead of food, he offered them the Bread of Life, his own body and blood. Jesus was promising to feed them in a completely different way than they had expected, and that didn't make sense to them. You can imagine them asking, “What is this?”

It can be a challenge to recognize how God is providing for us, especially if our prayers aren't answered in the way we desire. Or when your hearts are set on one thing, but God gives us something different. And when our hearts are set on one thing, but God gives us something different. And when God provides for us in ways we don't expect, we might ask, “What is this?”

Nowhere is this more clear than when we receive the Eucharist at Mass. What might look like simple bread and wine is actually Jesus himself, who heals, forgives, and brings life. We might come to Mass looking for one thing, only to find that Jesus offers us something deeper. We want answers, but he gives us his very self. We want a way out of a problem, but he gives us his grace to walk through it. In this unlikely form of bread and wine, we find the One who is the answer to all of our needs!

So let's trust that God knows the sustenance we need. He hears the cries of our hearts and he provides for us in ways we could never imagine. Let's open our hearts to receive the Bread of Life that he gives us today!

THE ANGEL MISSION

St. Alphonsus Parish in Ocean Springs is excited to be offering a very special Mission on the Holy Angels. Fr. Wolfgang Seitz of OSA (Opus Sanctorum Angelorum) will emphasize the powerful presence and help of the Holy Angels in our lives and in the spiritual battle that wages around us and in us, the battle between good and evil.

Father will further explain that devotion to the holy Angels is much more than simply calling on their protection. The holy Angels, especially our Guardian Angel, desire to enter into an intimate friendship based on love, that disposes us through their special help for all graces God wants to give us.

As in the case of Mary at the Annunciation, the angel knocks at the door of our hearts to be let in. Like Mary we want to open the door for them and collaborate with them to receive the Word of God and bear fruit. For this purpose the Church also endorses a Consecration to the Guardian Angel and to all the Holy Angels.

MISSION SCHEDULE:

Dates: August 12th, 13th and 14th, 2024

Confession: 5:15 - 5:45 p.m.

Holy Mass: 6:00 p.m.

Conference Talk: 6:45 p.m.

May your Guardian Angel inspire you to attend this informative, interesting and enlightening Mission!

As we move deeper into the hurricane season, here are a few things to know in the event the Mississippi Gulf Coast and St. Clare are threatened by tropical weather.

⇒ We will provide updates via FaceBook, the St. Clare website and an audio message will be changed as frequently as possible with updates.

⇒ Contact information is provided on the front page of the weekly bulletin and on our new bulletin board in the hallway leading to the kitchen/classroom area.

⇒ Finally, if we are threatened by a storm, there is a chance we will need volunteers to assist us in preparing the outdoor areas. Feel free to contact the office at 228-467-9275 if you are available to help.

KEY HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS TIPS

1 MAKE A PLAN

- Establish a primary evacuation route
- Determine where your family will stay during the disaster
- Remember to include pets in your plan
- Establish a way to get in touch with family members
- Have multiple ways to receive the latest weather updates

2 PACK A KIT

- |                   |                       |
|-------------------|-----------------------|
| ✓ Water           | ✓ First Aid Kit       |
| ✓ Food            | ✓ Important Documents |
| ✓ Flashlight      | ✓ Face Masks          |
| ✓ Portable Radio  | ✓ Hygiene Items       |
| ✓ Extra Batteries | ✓ Cash                |
| ✓ Phone Charger   |                       |

3 PREPARE FOR POWER OUTAGES

- Keep freezers and refrigerators closed
- Ahead of the storm, keep cell phones charged
- Have alternate plans for refrigerated medicines and/or power-dependent medical devices
- Do not use a gas stove to heat your home
- Disconnect appliances and electronics to avoid damage from electrical surges
- Use generators outdoors and away from windows

Food in a refrigerator will stay cold for about four hours and a freezer will keep its temperature for about 48 hours

Saint

Of the Week

St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross Patroness of Europe, Martyrs and those who have lost parents

Feast Day: August 9

Edith Stein was born on October 12, 1891, in Breslau, Germany (modern-day Wroclaw, Poland). The Steins were Orthodox Jews, but Edith renounced her faith as a teenager and declared herself an atheist.

A brilliant student, she was one of the first German women allowed to enter a university. She studied with Edmund Husserl, a world-famous philosopher, and after earning her Ph.D., she became his assistant.

Edith seemed destined for a distinguished academic career, until, in 1921, she read the autobiography of St. Teresa of Avila, the foundress of the reformed Carmelite Order. Struck by the saint's words, Edith was baptized a Catholic. She stopped working with Husserl and began teaching at a Catholic school.

Becoming a Carmelite

In 1932, Edith took a lecturing assignment at a German university. The next year, however, she lost the position, because of anti-Semitic laws promoted by Adolf Hitler. She entered the Carmelite convent at Cologne and took the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. She continued to pursue her intellectual interest, writing several important books. But, by the end of 1938, Teresa faced growing danger in Germany, as anti-Semitism continued to rise.

The new nun feared that the Nazis might punish others of her Order for protecting a Jew, so she transferred to a Carmelite house in the Netherlands. Germany soon invaded that country and began arresting all Dutch Catholics of Jewish descent.

In 1942, Teresa was sent to Auschwitz, where she died in a gas chamber. Survivors of the camp praised her compassion for others who were facing death.
