24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The Son of Man must suffer greatly...and be killed.”

How did Jesus know that he would die? Was it because, as God he could see his future? Was it because, as a man, he saw his disciples' weak faith as a hint of what would happen when they faced opposition in Jerusalem? Most likely, it was a combination of both— we won't know the full answer this side of heaven.

But what we do know is that, fully aware of what would happen to him, Jesus kept going. He kept preaching the unlimited mercy of God—a message that somehow provoked many of his listeners to anger and confounded even his closest followers. He kept teaching and forming them—the very people he knew would betray, deny, and abandon him in his hour of need. He knew how it would end, but he didn't turn aside from his mission.

This is the measure of Jesus' love. Even though he knew he would die a lonely and agonizing death, he still chose to walk the path of self-giving love. He knew that if he stayed on that path of self-giving love. He knew that if he stayed on the path all the way to the cross, the revelation of that love would ultimately pierce his disciples' hearts and transform them.

And it did. Seeing the risen Jesus on Easter Sunday changed everything for them. After all the ways they had failed him, he still came back and offered them the same love he had shown them all along. He still came back with the assurance of his forgiveness despite their sin. He still came back and entrusted them with the mission of sharing this love with the whole world. He even gave them his own Holy Spirit to empower them for this mission!

Jesus wants to do for you everything he did for his disciples. No matter what you have done or failed to do—no matter what you will do or fail to do—his love continues to flow out to you. Gaze at his cross today and receive that love.

Of the Week

St. John Charles Cornay

One of the 177 Martyrs of Vietnam

Feast Day: September 20

John Charles Cornay was born in 1809 in a small town near Poitiers in western France. Heeding a call to religion, Cornay became an ordained priest and eventually ended up in Paris, where he joined the Foreign Mission Society in the early 1820s. The purpose of the Foreign Mission Society was to send priests abroad to convert nonbelievers to Christianity.

Cornay became a missionary at a time of rapid European colonial expansion. In the early part of the 19th century, he was sent to Vietnam, which was then ruled by emperors of the Nguyen dynasty and prized by the French as a possible future colonial holding. The Vietnamese were suspicious of the Westerners and they had no interest in creating diplomatic ties with Western nations.

Colonial Martyr

That the French were allowed in Vietnam at all was the result of a rebellion in southern Vietnam in 1778. The Nguyen lord, Gia Long, fled Saigon for the French island stronghold of Phu Quoc Island, where Bishop Pierre Pigneau de Behaine Directed a seminary. Although Gia Long defeated the rebels in 1787 and allowed some trade with the French he remained wary of French intentions.

In 1820, Minh Mang, Gia Long's son and successor, absolutely forbade Christian evangelical activity. It was during his rule that Cornay and a number of other priests were arrested in 1835 in Northern Vietnam. Accused of hiding arms, Cornay was tortured by Vietnamese authorities and held in a bamboo cage for two years. Given a death sentence, he was beheaded on September 20, 1837. Cornay was canonized by Pope John Paul II in 1988.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to intercede on our behalf to your Son, Jesus, to protect all who are in danger of hurricanes and other destructive weather. May His calming powers keep us safe and alert through this Hurricane season. Let us pray to the Lord.
