“The word of God is living
 and effective.”

What are you looking for when you read the Bible? Information about God? Guidance for your life? There’s another reason, and it may be the most important of all. We can read the Scriptures so that they can read us. We can experience them as the “living and effective” word of God that can expose the motives of our hearts and bring us healing and restoration (Hebrews 4:12).

Today’s Gospel shows us this process in real time. A wealthy young man asks Jesus how he can be pleasing to God. In response, Jesus gives him information and guidance by recounting the Ten Commandments.

But the man senses that something is still missing, and he tells Jesus as much. I already do all of this; why am I still unsatisfied? This fellow may not see it, but he is asking Jesus to “read” him and tell what he sees.

“Looking at him” with great love, Jesus does just that. It’s as if he holds up a mirror to the man so that he can see that he is too attached to his wealth. He tells the man that if he sells his possessions and gives to the poor, he will finally find the “treasure” he is seeking. Unfortunately, the man cannot accept what he sees, so he goes away “sad” (Mark 10:21, 22).

None of us has to “go away sad” when we experience Jesus “reading” our hearts through the Scriptures. We can remember how Jesus looked at the man and know that that’s how he looks at all of us: with love! That means that you can hold fast to that love when his word uncovers the hidden “reflections and thoughts” in you (Hebrews 4:12). You can gaze into his eyes and see that he has nothing but good and hope-filled plans for you!

This is why the word of God is both living and effective. It’s living because it is capable of reading our hearts. And it’s effective because Jesus always speaks this word to us with love.

33 Days to Morning Glory: Consecration to Jesus through Mary

Begins: November 4th and continues through Consecration Day on December 9th, Immaculate Conception at the 8:30 a.m. Mass.

Are you looking for a simple way to be spiritually renewed, develop a deeper relationship with Our Merciful Savior and grow in holiness? For six weeks, we'll individually read about and reflect on four great Marian giants: St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, Saint Mother Teresa and Pope Saint John Paul II. Each week we will watch a 30-minute video by Father Michael Gaitley that will help with group discussions. Sessions will begin on Monday, November 4 with two times to chose from, 10 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. at St. Clare Catholic Church in the Parish Center.

Contacts are Terry Calhoun —228-671-8063 or terrycalhoun858@gmail.com or Susan Marino Kane—504-401-4266

There are several ways to access the Personal Retreat Guide. 1) FORMED.ORG, 2) Book [limited copies on hand, but may be ordered], 3) PDF [online file for download], or purchase a copy online. This 'retreat' may be as a group or on your own. The Consecration Mass is open to all those being consecrated the first time or previously consecrated. Complimentary Retreat Companion booklets will be provided when you sign up.

St. Vincent de Paul Society—St. Clare

A word of thanks to the generosity of all who have helped SVDP financially, by dropping off food for the pantry and volunteering your time. Our September 2024 numbers of assisting neighbors reflect just 3 weeks due to being closed for Hurricane Francine.

Food = $340.00 and Utilities $1,162.00

Items needed for the food pantry include: canned meats, instant pudding, 1# bags of sugar, canned ravioli, canned chili, pasta sauce, instant mashed potatoes, macaroni & cheese..

SVDP meets with neighbors in need on Wednesdays from 10:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. If you wish to volunteer with SVDP, please contact Jim Barrett, President of the St. Clare SVDP Society at 228-342-0552.

Are you able to help with cleaning our Church?

St. Clare is looking for a few people who would like to help out with cleaning the church on Thursday mornings. Any amount of time you can give would be so appreciated. We currently have about four ladies trying to keep up, but it is getting difficult for them to do everything needed. Shared duties include dusting, changing holy water weekly, cleaning bathrooms, cleaning the glass panes in the church doors inside, etc. It only takes an hour or so of cleaning when we have enough parishioners helping.

Please pray about this. If you have any questions you can phone Myra at 228-342-7209. Thank you!

Saint

Of the Week

St. Charles Garnier

Feast Day: October 19

North American Martyr

The son of a notable French family, Charles Garnier was born in Paris. At age 18, he joined the Society of Jesus. After teaching for several years, Charles became a priest in 1635. Almost immediately, he told his superiors he wanted to be a missionary in North America. A year later, Charles reached Quebec, and then set out on a long, difficult trip to live among the Hurons.

Frontier life tested Charles's frail body, but he welcomed the rigors of converting the Huron. He was faced with skepticism at first. Some of the Native Americans were suspicious of the Jesuit "blackrobes," and the Huron religious leaders accused the missionaries of treachery. But Charles learned the native language, then tended to the sick and gradually won many converts.

After several years, Charles settled in with the Petun people. At first he seldom said Mass, until one convert offered the use of his cabin as a chapel. Charles was then able to baptize children and adults, teach the catechism and lead his flock in prayers.

Despite Charles's success, he and the other Jesuits always faced danger. Battles between the Huron and their principal enemy, the Iroquois, sometimes cost the priests their lives. In 1649, Charles learned of the martyrdom of three fellow Jesuits. "How happy I should be to die with this little flock," he wrote.

Martyrs of North America

Later that year, the Iroquois raided Charles's village. As they brutally killed women and children, Charles rushed to baptize the dying. Finally, an Iroquois bullet struck him and he died. Brave and determined until the end, Charles was canonized in 1930. He share his feast day with seven other Jesuit martyrs of North America.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to intercede on our behalf to your Son, Jesus, to protect all who are in danger of hurricanes and other destructive weather. May His calming powers keep us safe and alert through this Hurricane season. Let us pray to the Lord.

STAR OF THE SEA

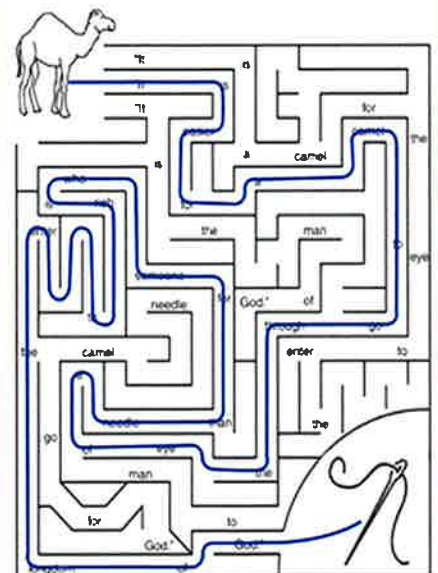

Jesus looked at him and loved him. He said, "Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me."
