The 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“I saw the Lord.”

How would you feel if you saw the Lord? Amazed? Afraid? Even ashamed? That’s what happened to Isaiah in today’s first reading. He beheld almighty God, seated on his heavenly throne, with angelic beings shouting, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord!” (6:3). Overwhelmed, Isaiah cried, “Woe is me!” and confessed that he was unworthy to stand before the Lord (6:5).

Peter had a similar experience in today’s Gospel. Wary from a long, unsuccessful night of fishing, he was cleaning his nets when Jesus told him, “Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch” (Luke 5:4). Peter must have grumbled as he cast his empty nets yet again. But once he saw the miraculous catch of fish, Peter fell to his knees, pleading, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man” (5:8).

How wonderful that God didn’t leave Peter and Isaiah in their fear and shame! Instead, he called them closer! God touched Isaiah and cleansed him of his sin. Even more, God invited him to speak to his people. And Jesus patiently reassured Peter, saying, “Do not be afraid,” and welcomed him to join in his mission of “catching men” (Luke 5:10).

He will do the same for you. Today, you have the chance to see the Lord—at Mass, as you ponder his word, or as you gaze upon the beauty of this natural world. In the brightness of his glory, you may become more aware of your darkness and sinfulness. But you will also realize that God is far more holy and loving than you have ever imagined. He will offer you his mercy and invite you to follow him more closely.

Whenever you feel inadequate or afraid in God’s presence, remember Isaiah and Peter. Don’t allow those feelings to hold you back or paralyze you or make you feel disqualified from following Jesus. He loves you perfectly. He is so holy, so merciful, so good. You don’t have to be afraid.

Of the Week

St. Agabus

Feast Day: February 13

Agabus was a Christian prophet who is mentioned in the Book of Acts. He was a member of the Christian community of Jerusalem in the first century. He is sometimes considered one of the 72 early disciples of Jesus described by the Apostle Luke in his Gospel. Like other biblical prophets, Agabus was blessed by the Holy Spirit with the gift of prophecy. Both of his predictions, recorded in Acts, came true.

Sometime around 40, Agabus traveled to Antioch, in Syria, with other prophets. He warned the Christians of the city to prepare for a famine. Five years later, a devastating famine struck the area. Having heeded Agabus's prediction, the Christians of Anitoch were able to send food to the believers in Jerusalem.

A Second Prophecy

Years later, Agabus again used his gift of prophecy in the city of Caesarea, where he met the Apostle Paul, who was on one of his many missions to spread the Word of Christ. Agabus took off Paul's belt and wrapped it around his own hands. The bound prophet then said, "This is the way the Jews will bind the owner of this belt in Jerusalem, and they will hand him over to the Gentiles." (Acts 21:11) Trusting that the Spirit spoke through Agabus to deliver a warning, Paul's followers begged their leader not to return to Jerusalem, but he went anyway. Once more, Agabus's prophecy was fulfilled.

Agabus tried to use his prophetic skills to help other Christians, which is one reason for his sainthood. By some accounts, he was also a martyr, sacrificing his life for his faith in Antioch.
