The 1st Sunday of Lent

“If you are the Son of God.”

Well, that’s one way for the devil to try to trip Jesus up! Get him to doubt his Father’s love and care for him. Come on, Jesus! You’re the Son of God. You don’t need to punish yourself like this. Look, here are some rocks you could use! Or, Son of God? No one will ever believe you—you look like an everyday carpenter. If you want followers, you need to do something dramatic. I know! How about jumping off the roof of the Temple? That will draw people to yourself much more quickly!

But as tempting as all this must have been, Jesus could see through the devil’s twisted logic. Being the Son of God isn’t about special perks and privileges. It isn’t about never being able to walk out the front door without being met by admirers. It’s about being like your Father: pouring yourself out to lift up the wounded. It’s about loving everyone selflessly, even if it means giving up your life on a cross.

As a child of God, you, too, will encounter temptation this Lent. You may be tempted to hold a grudge, to treat someone poorly, or to break your Lenten resolutions—or to commit any number of sins. But no matter what you face, it’s founded on some version of the lie that the devil tried to use on Jesus. It’s the false notion that God is holding something back from you, so you’ll need to bend some rules— or break them—so you can get what you think you need.

As the old saying goes, “Forewarned is forearmed.” So when you find yourself wanting to justify sin, recognize the voice of the tempter and stand firm. When you find yourself doubting God’s goodness, label those thoughts as coming from our enemy, the accuser. And run to Jesus for help. He knows exactly how to overcome the devil.

The Catholic Sharing Appeal

“Build a future where the Church’s mission can radiate in our communities.”

The 2025 Catholic Sharing Appeal message, “Building a Future of Hope” is based on this scripture and is just as relevant today as it was at the time of Jeremiah. I invite you to enter into this scripture and to join me, and your brothers and sisters of our diocese, on this mission of hope to build our Church through supporting those in need and advancing the spiritual growth of the Church.

When we participate in our Catholic Sharing Appeal, we come together, as the Body of Christ, to build and invest in people and projects that enhance Catholic life, support social outreach, and bring the mission of Christ to life in our diocese.

We offer up prayers of Thanksgiving for your support. Our goal at St. Clare is to have 100% participation. Be part of that number. God Bless you all!

2025 CATHOLIC SHARING APPEAL

Building a future of Hope

*“hope does not disappoint because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.”
Romans 5:5*

Good Morning!

Today I invite you to join me in participating in Building a Future of Hope through our 2025 Catholic Sharing Appeal. This sentiment is inspired by Pope Francis and his call to spread hope during this Year of Jubilee.

In his papal bull, Pope Francis underscores the need for a world rooted in solidarity, justice, and compassion. He reminds us that hope is not a passive sentiment but an active commitment to fostering a better future for all, especially for those who do not know the Lord Jesus.

This message challenges us as individuals, and as a Church, to take responsibility for helping shape a society rooted in love and unity, affirming that each of us plays a vital role in building a brighter tomorrow.

In our diocese, our Catholic Sharing Appeal embodies this mission of hope.

It supports ministries that bring Christ's love to those in need—providing shelter, food, and resources through Catholic Charities to families facing hunger and homelessness. Our appeal also strengthens our Catholic faith formation and catechetical ministries, nurturing faith and knowledge in the current and next generation. Additionally, it funds chaplaincy programs that bring the sacraments and God's mercy to the sick and isolated, offering light in moments of suffering.

Together, these efforts reflect the promise of transforming hope into tangible acts of service.

I invite you to join me in this mission by participating in this year's appeal.

Your participation through prayer and a gift of any amount, will impact someone's life in our communities.

Be assured of my prayers of thanksgiving for your faithful support and generosity.

Of the Week

St. Clement Mary Hofbauer

Feast Day: March 15

Patron of Bakers and Waiters

The ninth of 12 children, Johannes Hofbauer was born in 1751. His father, who was a butcher, died when Johannes was six years old. Even though Johannes dreamed of being a priest, the boy was forced to work as a baker. Later he found some financial backing and was able to go to Rome.

Johannes became a Redemptorist and took the religious name Clement Mary. After he was ordained in 1785, Clement Mary traveled to Warsaw. Because of government resistance, there had been no priests in the region for a number of years. So Clement Mary and two other Redemptorists occupied the Church of St. Benno and attracted new members to the Order, establishing the Redemptorists north of the Alps for the first time.

Working in poverty, the Redemptorists first preached in the streets. But then they were banned from public areas by the government, so they moved their sermons back into St. Benno's.

For the Children

Holding a special concern for needy children, Clement Mary opened an orphanage and begged to collect financing for it. According to one story, when he approached a man who was playing cards in a tavern, the man spit at him and Clement Mary calmly said, "That was for me. Now please let me have something for my poor children." The card player was won over.

As Warsaw's Redemptorist community grew, Clement Mary sent missionaries to Switzerland, Lithuania, Germany and other parts of Poland. He moved to Vienna, where he died creating another house there.
