The 3rd Sunday in Lent

“Is the Lord in our midst?”

Today marks the third Sunday of Lent, and your enthusiasm for prayer, fasting, and almsgiving may be fading by now. Perhaps your Lenten sacrifices have been more challenging than you anticipated or you don't feel any closer to God. Like the Israelites in today's first reading, you may wonder, "Is the Lord in our midst or not?" (Exodus 17:7).

God had freed his people from slavery, yet they doubted that he would provide for them. In their thirst, they grew impatient and hardened their hearts despite all he had done for them. They even argued that slavery in Egypt was better than freedom in the desert! So they demanded that the Lord quench their thirst. In his mercy, God granted their request. Moses struck the rock, and water flowed forth for the people to drink.

In today's Gospel, we meet a Samaritan woman who also has a deep thirst. She comes to draw water, but Jesus asks her for a drink. She wonders: Who is this? Jesus replies, "If you knew...you would have asked him and he would have given you living water" (John 4:10). She doesn't grasp who Jesus is, but her thirst opens her heart to him. "Give me this water," she asks, and Jesus reveals himself to her (4:15). He is the One who offers the waters of eternal life. He is the One who knows her past. He is the promised Messiah. Unlike the thirsty Israelites who grumbled, her heart is soft, receptive to God's presence. And in his goodness, Jesus quenches her thirst, and she leaves her water jar to tell everyone about him.

Jesus wants to reveal himself to you—do you recognize him? He speaks to you through the Scriptures at Mass today; he invites you to quench your thirst as you receive him in the Eucharist. He is present in both the simple and the profound moments of life, in your dirty dishes and a beautiful sunrise. So open your eyes and "harden not your heart" (Psalm 95:8). The Lord is in your midst! ~~~~ The Word Among

St. Francis of Rome

Feast Day: March 9 ~ Patroness of Motorists and Widows

Born into a wealthy Roman family in 1384, Frances wanted to become a nun. Her parents, however, had arranged a marriage to nobleman Lorenzo Ponziano. Assured that it was God's will, Francis became Lorenzo's wife at age 13. Frances's sister-in-law, Vanozza, shared her devotion to God and together the two women helped the sick and the poor while also fulfilling the obligations of their marriage. Frances also dutifully cared for her husband, three children and servants as was loved by all.

In 1408, a battle between supporters of Pope Alexander V and the antipope ravaged Rome and caused great suffering for the Ponziano family. Lorenzo was stabbed and one son was taken hostage. That same year, another son died of the plague.

Gift for Healing

Continuing to trust God's will. Frances opened a hospital in the palace to help victims of famine and pestilence. She attributed her amazing gift for healing to her guardian angel who was constantly visible to her.

Frances, too, contracted the plague and was ill for many months. Eventually, peace was restored in the city and her exiled son returned. He later married Mobilia, who ridiculed Frances's charity and shabby dress. But when Mobilia fell ill, Frances nursed her back to health and the young woman became her devoted follower.

Later Frances founded the Oblates of Tor de Specchi, a group of religious women committed to good works. A model of austerity, she ate little more than dry bread. The devout woman also experienced visions and ecstasies. Before her death, her last words were, "The angel has finished his work. He is beckoning me to follow." Within the Benedictine Order, she is honored as a patron saint of all oblates.
