Corpus Christi Sunday

“The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

Today we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. We stand in awe that Jesus makes himself truly and entirely present in the Eucharist. We marvel at the glorious mystery that the Divine Son of God not only became a man and offered himself on the cross but that he also comes to us, Body and Blood, soul and divinity, so that we can receive him into our own bodies in Communion.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is early in his ministry, but he is already pointing people toward his Last Supper, passion, and death. He tells them that just as God had fed his people Israel with manna in the desert, he would feed them. But Jesus is not speaking only about physical bread and the miraculous multiplication of the loaves (John 6:1-15). He is promising the “food that endures for eternal life” (6:27). He is proclaiming that he himself is “the living bread that came down from heaven” and that he will give them his own “flesh for the life of the world” (6:51).

Two thousand years later, we encounter this same Jesus at every Eucharist. What a glorious gift! He offered his Body and Blood on the cross to save us, and now he gives us that same Body and Blood on the Altar.

At Mass today, as the priest lifts up the Host, fix your eyes and heart on Jesus. As you pray, “Lord, I am not worthy,” trust in the mercy of your crucified Savior. As you come forward to receive Jesus, Proclaim your faith in his true, Real Presence in what was once only bread and wine. And as you kneel in grateful prayer, praise and thank him for giving his life to you and offering himself for the whole world.

This is the Hour of Love

THE 2026 CATHOLIC SHARING APPEAL

Grace and peace to you in the love of our Lord Jesus Christ. Each year, the Catholic Sharing appeal invites us to renew our commitment to the mission of the Church. This year, that invitation comes with renewed urgency and hope: this is the Hour for Love—a moment that gently invites us to begin again.

Love is not merely a feeling; it is a decision. It is the choice to say “yes” to God and to one another, even when seasons of life change. The Church remains grateful; for the support you have offered in the past, support that helped sustain ministries and touch lives throughout the Diocese of Biloxi.

Currently, only 25% of diocesan families participate in the Catholic Sharing Appeal. Yet through the generosity of that faithful minority, the Church continues to serve—forming priests, nurturing young people, strengthening families, and caring for those most in need. Imagine what could be possible if every household participated.

The Catholic Sharing Appeal is not simply about funding programs; it is about discipleship and belonging. Participation itself is an act of love and unity. When we participate together, we proclaim our faith in Christ, our belief in the Church’s mission, and our willingness to play a part in that mission.

Where does the CSA funding go?

- ◇ Do you know a permanent deacon who serves in this parish or another? Deacon Charles Walden is a beneficiary of the funding that comes from CSA.
- ◇ Have your children or grandchildren attended a youth conference? Yes, in the spring of 2025 and 2026 we have had youth involved in the Diocese of Biloxi Youth Convention and Middle School Youth Rally. They are looking forward to attending in 2027.
- ◇ Have you attended RCIA/OCIA in this parish or another within the diocese? Each year we work with individuals and families throughout the year to join the Catholic faith at the Easter Vigil.

These are just a few examples of how the support of the Catholic Sharing Appeal benefits our parish and diocese.

Saint of the Week

Pope St. Leo III

Feast Day: June 12

Patron of Rome, Popes and Confessors

Prior to his unanimous election as pope in 795, Leo served as a priest, cardinal and papal treasurer. One of Leo's first accomplishments as pope was to strengthen the ties between the Roman church and Charlemagne, the Frankish king who controlled a large part of Western Europe.

Pope Leo named Charlemagne the protector of the Holy See. Soon after, Leo had to call upon the king for assistance in his fight to maintain the papacy. The nephew of Leo's predecessor, Adrian I, had desperately wanted the papal seat. So in 799, Adrian's nephew and his supporters hired men to murder Leo.

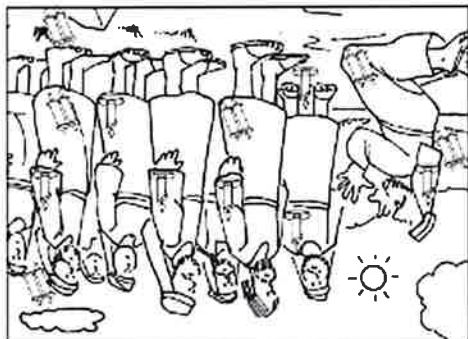

Leo survived the attack and fled to Charlemagne's camp. After a few months, the king's troops escorted Leo back to Rome, where he received a warm welcome.

Leo's troubles, however, were not over. In 800, his enemies accused him of perjury and adultery. But a group of bishops ruled that they did not have the authority to decide the Pope's fate. So Leo declared his own innocence and the matter ended.

Powerful Alliance

A few days later, on Christmas, Charlemagne quietly prayed in St. Peter's Basilica. Leo approached him and crowned Charlemagne "king of the Romans," marking the birth of the Holy Roman Empire. From that moment on, Leo and Charlemagne often consulted each other on political matters, although Leo resisted the emperor's attempts to influence Church doctrine. Leo also used money he had previously received from Charlemagne to help the poor and rebuild churches.

Leo died in 816, after helping to ensure the importance of the papacy in Western Europe.
