18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“They all ate and were satisfied.”

We're all hungry. We're all looking to fill ourselves with something that really satisfies us. This hunger goes beyond a desire for food. We all know the longing for something more, something that sets our hearts at rest.

When Jesus multiplied the loaves and fish in today's Gospel, he satisfied the physical hunger of the crowd. But even more, he foreshadowed the way he would feed us in the Eucharist. He revealed that he alone can satisfy our deepest needs.

The idea of God feeding his hungry people isn't anything new. In today's first reading, God spoke to Israel as they languished in Babylon: "Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare" (Isaiah 55:2). Perhaps the people suffered from physical hunger, but the banquet God promised was something far more profound: they would return to their own land and to a restored relationship with God himself.

When Jesus fed the five thousand, his action looked ahead to the same kind of satisfaction—one that would bring reconciliation and peace to our souls. Because the "rich fare" that we will "delight in" one day is the heavenly banquet, where we are restored to God completely and where all sin, suffering, and mourning are wiped away.

Today you will be offered "rich fare" in Holy Communion. It's a spiritual food that brings you the fruit of Jesus' sacrifice on the cross—a sacrifice that frees you from sin and restores you to the Father. When you receive Jesus in the Eucharist, you are nourished in a truly satisfying way. You receive strength for your journey, patience when you're weary, and the grace to forgive. You are filled with God's life and changed into Christ.

Pope Saint Sixtus II

Feast Day: August 7

Pope and Patron of Bellegra, Italy

Born in the early third century, Sixtus lived in a time of many changes in the Roman Empire.

In 257, Emperor Valerian issued a decree, which mandated Christian clergymen sacrifice to the pagan gods or die. As a result, many Christians were put to death, including Pope Steven I. Sixtus was then secretly consecrated as Steven's successor.

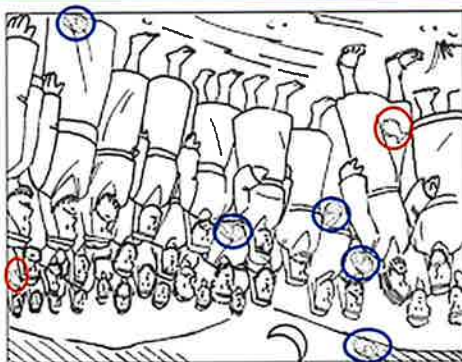

One of Sixtus's important contributions as Pope was to make peace with the Churches in Asia Minor and northern Africa, where some bishops held that baptisms conferred by heretics were not valid, in contradiction to Church policy in Rome. His predecessor had been stern in trying to correct these bishops, but Sixtus was loving, and he managed to restore friendly relations.

Protecting His Flock

Soon after Sixtus became Pope, Emperor Valerian issued an even stronger decree against Christians, ordering the execution of all Christian clergymen. On August 6, 258, Sixtus was addressing the congregation at a liturgical service in the private cemetery of Praetextatus, which was believed to be a safe haven. Suddenly, imperial forces rushed in and seized the Pope.

It is said that Sixtus refused to attempt an escape, even when the opportunity presented itself, for fear of initiating a massacre of the congregation. Instead, he was either beheaded immediately or taken to court for sentencing and then brought back and executed. He was buried across the road in the Cemetery of St. Callistus.

One of the Church's most highly venerated martyrs, Sixtus is the subject of a very famous painting, Raphael's Sistine Madonna, also called Our Lady and Child with SS Sixtus II and Barbara.

"We have here only five loaves, of bread and two fish," they answered.
"Bring them here to Me," He said.
And He directed the people to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven,
He gave thanks and broke the loaves.
Then He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.

First, each word in the puzzle with the letter groups from this list was placed in the puzzle.
Then, the words were rearranged to form the correct words.
The words are: bread, people, grass, fish, answered, brought, gave, broke, disciples, looked, heaven, thanks, loaves, directed, sit, down, gave, to, the, people, and, two, fish, they, we, have, here, only, five, loaves, of, bread, and, two, fish, they, answered, brought, them, here, to, me, he, said, and, he, directed, the, people, to, sit, down, on, the, grass, taking, the, five, loaves, and, the, two, fish, and, looking, up, to, heaven, he, gave, thanks, and, broke, the, loaves, then, he, gave, them, to, the, disciples, and, the, disciples, gave, them, to, the, people.
